“You’re up Jesus”

Prelude

Welcome, Announcements

Call to Worship from Psalm 36:5-10

Your love, Yhwh, reaches to the heavens, your faithfulness to the skies.

Your justice is like the mountains in their splendor, Your judgments like the great deep. Whether human or animal, Yhwh, you keep us all in your care.

How precious is your love! Whether creatures of heaven or children of earth, we all find refuge in the shadow of your wings. We feast on the bounty of your estate, and drink from the stream of your delights. In you is the wellspring of Life, and in your light we become enlightened. Prolong your love for those who know you, and your justice for upright hearts.

Old Testament Reading Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake, I will not be silent for the sake of Jerusalem, I will not rest—not until her integrity shines like the dawn her deliverance like a flaming torch. The nations will see your vindication, and the rulers your splendor; you will have a new name that YHWH's mouth will bestow. You will be a garland of beauty in YHWH's hands, a solemn crown worn by your God. Never again will you be called Forsaken. Never again will your land be called Desolate. But you will be called My Delight Is In Her, and your land will be called Married. For YHWH will take delight in you and your land will be joined with God in wedlock. For just as a young couple marry, you will be forever married to this land; as a newly married couple rejoice over each other, so will YHWH rejoice over you.

New Testament Reading: John 2:1-11

Three days later, there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and Mary, the mother of Jesus, was there. Jesus and his disciples had likewise been invited to the celebration. At a certain point, the wine ran out, and Jesus' mother told him, "They have no wine." Jesus replied, "Mother, what does that have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." She instructed those waiting on tables, "Do whatever he tells you." As prescribed for Jewish ceremonial washings, there were six stone water jars on hand, each one holding between fifteen and twenty-five gallons. "Fill those jars with water," Jesus said, and the servers filled them to the brim. "Now," said Jesus, "draw some out and take it to the caterer." They did as they were instructed. The caterer tasted the water—which had been turned into wine—without knowing where it had come from; the only ones who knew were those who were waiting on tables, since they had drawn the water. The caterer called the bride and groom over and remarked, "People usually serve the best wine first; then, when the guests have been drinking a while, a lesser vintage is served. What you've done is to keep the best wine until now!" Jesus performed this first of his signs at Cana in Galilee; in this way he revealed his glory, and the disciples believed in him.

When Mennonites were banned

In March 1922, a five-person delegation went to Ottawa to meet the newly elected Liberal prime minister, William Lyon Mackenzie King. They were advocating for King to rescind an order that had banned Mennonites from entering the country entirely. Read When Mennonites were banned
