Prelude

Welcome, Announcements

Call to Worship: Psalm 90:1-6, 13-17

Leader: YHWH, you have been our refuge from one generation to the next.

People: Before the mountains were born, you brought forth the earth and the world; you are God without beginning or end.

Leader: You turn humankind back into dust and say: "Go back, creatures of the earth!"

People: For in your sight a thousand years are like yesterday, come and gone, no more than a watch in the night.

Leader: You sweep us away like a dream, fleeting as the grass that springs up in the morning –

People: in the morning it sprouts, but by evening it has withered and died.

Leader: YHWH, relent! How long before you have mercy on your faithful ones?

People: When morning comes, fill us with your love, and we will celebrate all our days.

Leader: Give us joy for as many days as you afflicted us, for as many years as we knew misfortune! Let your work be seen by your faithful, your glory be witnessed by their children.

People: Let YHWH's favor be upon us! Grant success to the work of our hands, success to the work of our hands.

Scripture Reading: Read on video by Lois Siemens. Deuteronomy 34 (The Inclusive Bible)

Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, the headland of Pisgah which faces Jericho and Yahweh showed him all the land - Gilead as far as Dan, all of Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the Negev and the stretch of the valley of Jericho, the city of Palms, and as far as Zoar. Then Yahweh said to Moses, "This is the land I swore to Sarah and Abraham, to Rebecca and Isaac, to Leah, Rachel and Jacob that I would give to their descendants. I have let you feast your eyes upon it, but you will not cross over."

So there in the land of Moab, Moses the servant of God died as Yahweh decreed, and he was buried in the valley opposite Beth Peor in the land of Moab, but to this day no one knows the exact burial place. Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died, yet his eyesight was strong and he was still quite vigorous. For thirty days the Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab, until they had completed the period of grief and mourning.

Now Joshua ben-Nun, was filled with the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him. And the Israelites gave him their obedience, carrying out the order God had given to Moses. Since then, no prophet has risen in Israel like Moses, whom Yahweh knew face to face.

There is no equal to all the signs and wonders Yahweh our God caused Moses to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all of Pharaoh's officials and the whole land. How mighty the hand and how terrifying the displays of power that Moses wielded in the sight of all Israel!

Gospel Reading: Matthew 22:34-46 (The Inclusive Bible)

34 When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had left the Sadducees speechless, they gathered together, 35 and one of them, an expert on the Law, attempted to trick Jesus with this question: 36 “Teacher, which commandment of the Law is the greatest?” 37 Jesus answered: “ ‘You must love the Most High God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind.’ 38 “That is the greatest and first commandment. 39 The second is like it: ‘You must love your neighbor as yourself.’ 40 On these two commandments the whole Law is based—and the Prophets as well.”

41 While the Pharisees were gathered around him, Jesus asked them this question: 42 “What do you think about the Messiah? Whose descendant is the Messiah?” They said, “David’s.” 43 Then Jesus asked, “Then how is it that David, inspired by the Spirit, calls the Messiah ‘Sovereign’? For he says, 44 ‘The Most High said to my Sovereign, ‘Sit at my right hand until I place your enemies under your foot.’ ’ 45 “If David calls the Messiah ‘Sovereign,’ how can the Messiah be a descendant of David?” 46 No one could reply, and from that day on no one dared ask him any more questions.

Benediction: (adapted from Rev. Won Hur)

Let us go forth called to God who continues to guide us: attending to our stories, healing us as all on this sacred land, showing us how to live in right relations. God promises to bless and encourage us on the path of respect. So go with the peace and promise of God, the energy of the Spirit of Love, and the passion of Jesus. Amen.
