

MCC Connects – Pakistan's worst flooding in 80 years has left millions homeless. Although MCC does not have staff in Pakistan, we are sharing finances with organizations like Canadian Foodgrains Bank to distribute food to those affected. Please donate online at mcc.org or call the MCCS office. See bulletin board for additional information.

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE LESSONS:

Proverbs 25:6 - 7 (NRSV) ⁶ Do not put yourself forward in the king's presence or stand in the place of the great; ⁷ for it is better to be told, "Come up here," than to be put lower in the presence of a noble.

Luke 14:1 (NRSV) ¹On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely. ²When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable. ³"When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; ⁴and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, 'Give this person your place,' and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. ⁵But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. ⁶For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted." ⁷He said also to the one who had invited him, "When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. ⁸But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. ⁹And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."
